- Councillors were invited to St John's to meet their councillors
- On arrival, councillors were given time to introduce themselves and get to know their peers
- Representatives from St Chrysostom's were invited to tell St John's what we had been working on since September (Children in Need, the reading shed etc.) and a representative from St John's did the same
- We discussed how we could collaborate together, including work in the community (help the homeless, visit a retirement home)
- On arrival back at school we discussed the ideas St John's had given us and what we would like to do in future
